

Yale First Nation Government

October 13th, 2023

Dear Yale First Nation Members,

First and foremost, we would like to express our sincere thanks and appreciation for your patience while we transition into our roles as Chief and Council. We are diligently reviewing and advancing the projects initiated by our predecessors. We are dedicating our utmost effort behind the scenes and assure you of our unwavering commitment to fostering growth and development for Yale First Nation. Your trust and support are important to us, and we are committed to ensuring a smooth and successful transition that will lay the foundation for growth and development within our Nation.

In the spirit of transparency and collaboration, we have several important gatherings on the horizon. Near the end of November 2023, we have a time-sensitive meeting to be scheduled. The primary focus of this meeting will be to discuss past/future funding that Yale has applied for on behalf of our communities. We greatly value your input and support in making informed decisions that will benefit us all.

As we approach the holiday season, we are excited to announce we have arranged a Christmas dinner, this occasion will not only celebrate the holiday season but also serve as the Swearing-In Ceremony for new Chief and Council, a wonderful occasion for us to come together and celebrate as a Nation. Furthermore, upcoming Spring, we are looking forward to hosting a band meeting. This gathering will provide us with the opportunity to strengthen our bonds, get to know each other better, and foster open communication among our members.

We genuinely want to emphasize that your opinions and values hold a vital role for Chief and Council. Your input is important as we collectively chart the course for our Nation's future. To ensure that you stay informed about these events and meetings, we will be sending out updates via mail, email, and posting on our social media networks, and the Yale First Nation website. These announcements will include crucial details such as dates, times, and locations. Including this upcoming meeting in November.

We are fully committed to the well-being, growth, and prosperity of Yale First Nation. Your presence and participation are instrumental in our journey. If you have any questions, concerns, or suggestions in the meantime, please do not hesitate to reach out to us.

All my Relations,

Yale First Nation Chief & Council
