Job Posting: Lukseetsissum Community Centre Elder in Residence

Position Overview:

The Lukseetsissum Community Centre is seeking a dedicated and community-oriented Elder in Residence to oversee the day-to-day operations of the community center. This part-time position (20-25 hours per week) requires a dependable individual to help maintain the space, assist with events, and support the center's activities. The Elder in Residence will work collaboratively with Yale First Nation's Band Administration/Temporary Administration to ensure the center remains a welcoming and well-kept environment.

Key Responsibilities:

- Facility Maintenance: Ensure the Lukseetsissum Community Centre remains clean and organized.
- Event Support: Assist with setting up and cleaning up for events.
- Access Oversight: Monitor and manage who is allowed in the center during their shifts.
- Garbage Collection: On Wednesday evenings, collect garbage and place it by the front door inside for maintenance staff to bring to the road for garbage pickup.
- Food Preparation Support: Assist with greenhouse-related food preparation tasks, including freezing, canning, and dehydrating produce.
- Event Availability: Be available, with prior approval, to assist with occasional evening and weekend events (not required).

Qualifications:

- A connection to the community and knowledge of Lukseetsissum traditions and values.
- Dependable, trustworthy, and able to work independently.
- Ability to perform light physical tasks such as cleaning and moving light items.
- Willingness to learn and support food preparation processes.
- Strong interpersonal and organizational skills.

Work Schedule:

- Monday to Friday, part-time (20-25 hours per week).
- Occasional evening or weekend hours for events, as approved.

Reporting:

This position reports directly to the Band Administration or Temporary Administration.

How to Apply:

Interested applicants are encouraged to submit their application to Jpeters@yalefirstnation.ca by December 6th, 2024. For inquiries, please contact the office at 604-869-0013 and ask for Janita.
